1934

Foreword

To bring before the students, alumni, and friends of the Hillsboro High School, a review of the eventful year of 1933-34, we present
the eleventh volume of The Hiltop.

Hoping that the spirit with which this is offered will continue to prevail,
the Class of 1934 extends greetings.

Dedication

The Past is done, and has served its part as a preparation for the Present. The Present is here, and, having profited by the Lessons of the Past, we may strive for even greater achievements in the Future. Accordingly, we dedicate this book to the Future of the Hillsboro High School, as a record of the Past and Present and in hopeful prophecy.

Senior Class History

From yon medieval castle, a knight on a gallant steed rode forth with a scroll of parchment bearing witness to the deeds, the trials, and the triumphs of a group who chose to call themselves the Senior Class.

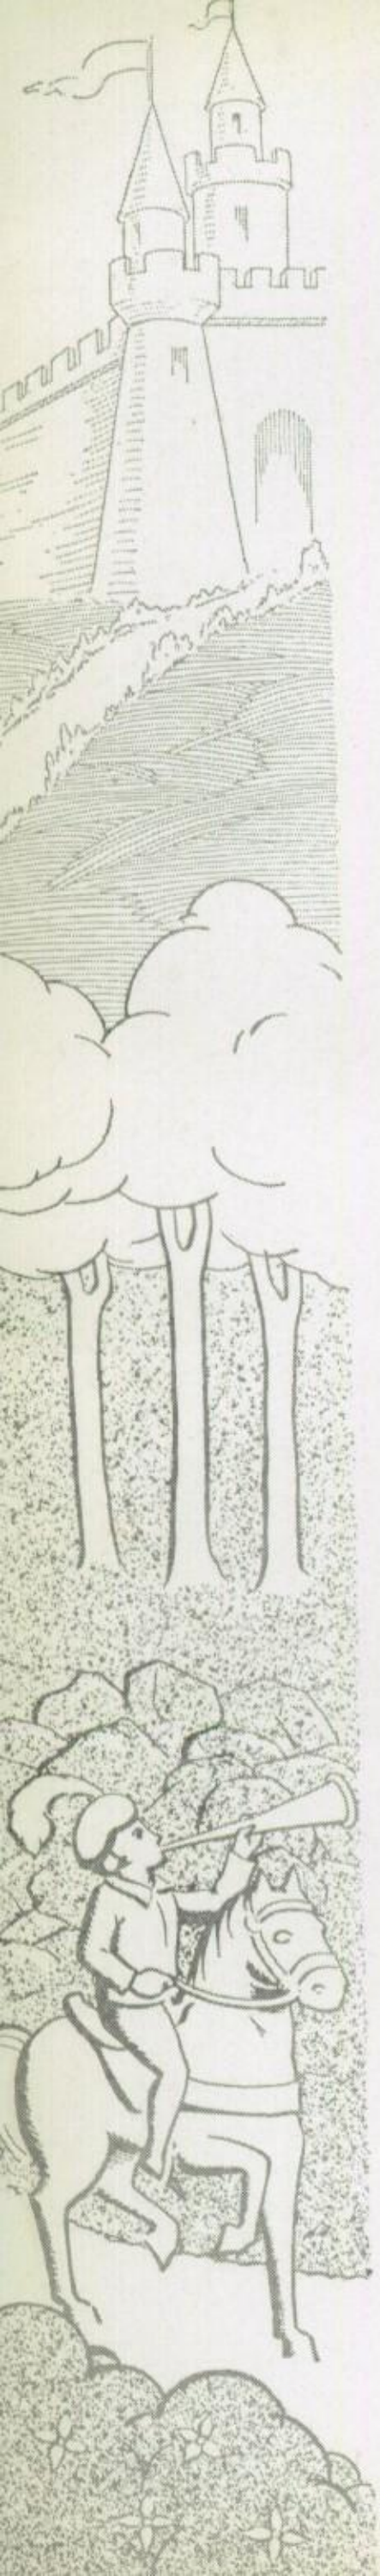
In the first paragraph of the parchment the names of Conway, McDade, and Imhoff held sway over the tournament. The knights who battled Basketball and Football were Glosecki, Mehochko, Ford, Funk, and Claybrook. Throughout our visit in the castle these gallant knights defended our honor in the field of battle. The lords and ladies of the court possessed most brilliant minds adding the fame of intellect to our other laurels.

During our second year Glosecki, Bonati, and Camealy reigned supreme. Fresh laurels were added to our previous triumphs.

White, Conway, and Fellis championed our court for the third year. We held a brilliant levee called the Junior-Senior Prom. It proved to be one of the outstanding social events of the season.

The people of the court were pleased with the loyalty, dignity and honor of their rulers. Thus White and Fellis, with the aid of Major, held supremacy in the fourth year.

And so our visit comes to an end. We, the Senior Class, ride forth into the kingdom of greater achievements, Success in the World.



ROBERT APPLETON

Junior Class History

The sun had risen and was shining brightly over the huge castle on the hill. Inside an eager and expectant group awaited the arrival of the new pages. Finally the pages came into sight and out from the castle ran the lords and ladies, kings and queens, dukes and duchesses, to greet the newcomers. (Yes, they did! ! !) The new pages patterned after the older group, and soon learned the customs and the secrets of the castle The new pages then set in for earnest, and through the help of "Lady" Bennett they carefully wended their way up to dukes and duchesses. When they reached this point, they considered themselves quite noble. But my! How far from their goal they really were! Having learned the ways of the castle they progressed much more in the position of dukes and duchesses and were really respected. Under the guidance of "Good Lady" Weller their dangers were few and they progressed rapidly to the station of lords and ladies. Here with the "helping hand" of "Grand Lady" Clark, they sailed along with grace and ease. Many tournaments, soirees, and festivals were enjoyed by the lords and ladies, and they majestically carried off all the honors. (That's what they say.) Many lords contributed to the chivalric festivities as the ladies graced the jousts with their charm. Finally the end of their happy times ended and they eagerly awaited the time when they would be "Kings and Queens" of the "Grand Castle"—H. C. H. S.

Sophomore Class History

Rounding the curve we saw a beautiful building surrounded by a lovely campus, so we all disembarked and decided to explore. On the front were inscribed the letters H. C. H. S. When we entered, it was like exploring a new world. We saw new sights, met new people, and learned new things. By the aid of our good guide, Miss Bennett, we learned what to do to keep out of danger and not lose our way. We then chose Brohammer, Ash and Benson to lead us. After a few days we were located, and then came the work. Like good troopers we all joined in together to accomplish what we could.

Knowing that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, some of our comrades went out for sports. The most outstanding ones were Corso, Drobnack, Barbetti, Frkovich, McLean, and Dobrinic. Deciding that we needed something in the line of recreation, we got together and had a hobo party. At the end of our first year we found that we had made numerous advancements and were much more successful than we had expected.

Now we are coming to the close of our second year and as we look back, we see that we have made still more progress under the leadership of Miss Weller, who was assisted by McLean, Birzle and Close. We are still represented in the field of athletics and we also have some members, who through their effort and mental ability, have succeeded in another field. Following the custom, we had another party to celebrate the successfulness of the second year of our exploration; and now we hope that in the two years to follow, our success and good fortune will continue.

Freshman Class History

A manor house stood on a hill
It was with many knights and ladies filled.
One day—one bright September day—
A motley crowd did wend its way.
To enter the castle and to stay;
To conquer the demon Algebra;
To seek for science in his lair;
To capture good English and Latin snare,
Before the knights and lad.es were aware!
They scaled the walls;
They filled the halls;
They entered every fray;
In football they were on the line,
In basketball they were not behind.
A company of warriors they became
To battle on for fame.
They chose a lady for their head,
"Bernardini" easily led.
To help the lady they chose a knight,
"McLean" they said, is quite all right.
"Lady McBride" they next said aside,
To keep their record from going awry.
All went well in the castle tall,
Until one day a giant bold
Came to take his annual toll.
They tackled the giant "Exam" by name;
Some lost but many could play the game.
The fight went on much the same
Until a happy festival came.
They set aside their many tasks,
Played games and built memories that could last.
Before the knights and ladies of the castle,
They bowed and sang and danced.
The frolic pleased the crowd
Who clapped and shouted long and loud.
The day was won,
Their banner flung,
The castle is their home.
Tho' years may come
And victories may be won,
They'll love this castle still.
It is their "Alma Mater"
Upon the hill.

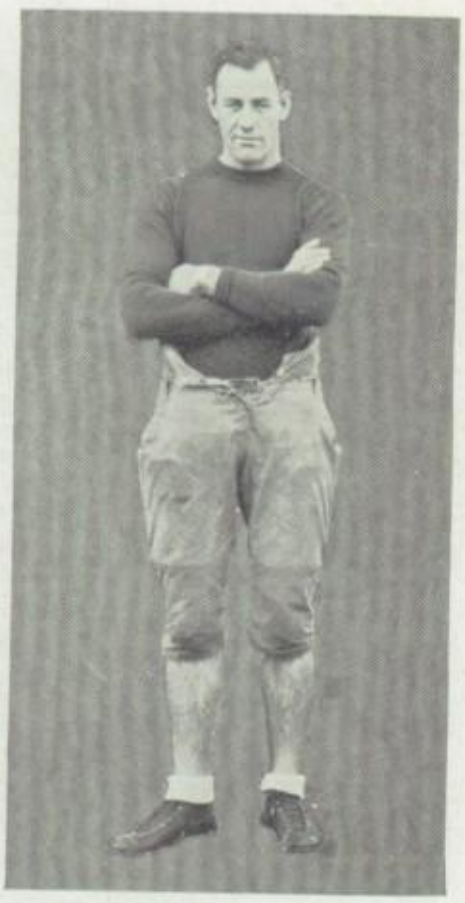
COACH FEARHEILEY

Mr. Fearheiley is our coach and by his work we know him. He is both capable and efficient. During the six years that he has been here this has been proved by our trophies from three districts and one sectional basketball tournament. He has entered six county tournaments and has encountered only one defeat. He has also won two South Central Conference football trophies and one basketball trophy. Twice we have carried off South Central track and field meet honors. Our football team has always been a menace to the other contenders in the South Central Conference. Thus due to Mr. Fearheiley's able coaching Hillsboro has always ranked high in the field of athletics.



ASS'T COACH EWALD

Mr. Ewald is our assistant coach. He shows his greatest coaching ability in developing an inpenetrable line. Mr. Ewald possesses the ability to win the confidence of the boys and has done much for the morale of the teams. He conducts gym classes which make physical training seem a necessity in the life of the high school boy. And so by taking off the rough edges Mr. Ewald prepares the boys for their ultimate goal—star athletes, physically fit and willing to do.

Football, '33

NOKOMIS (There)—We, 19; They, 0.—Sept. 22, 1933

A practice game and did we wallop 'em! Looks as if we're going to have a real team this year. That remains to be seen. Voyles catches a pass for the first six and Andy and Pulliam take honors for the other touchdowns. Good luck, boys! Referee—MacDonald.

PEORIA MANUAL (Here)—We, 6; They, 6.—Sept. 30, 1933

What a game! Both teams played well and seemed to be fairly matched. Camplin, Pulliam, and Rogan played a nice game with Andy doing his duty. A little hard luck lost the extra point which tied the score but nevertheless it was exciting and our team looks strong. Referee—Conrey; Umpire—McAdams; Head Linesman—Peters.

CARLINVILLE (There)—We, 7; They, 6.—Oct. 6, 1933

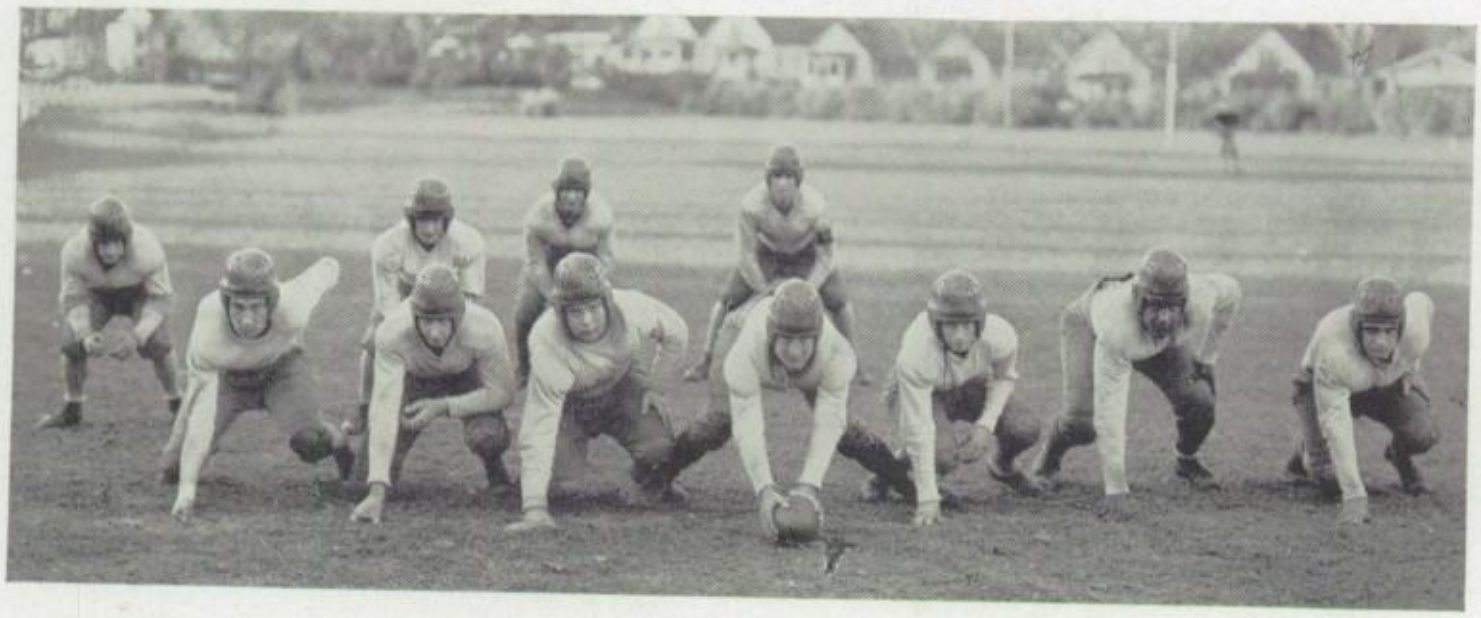
Another close game. We came through with a touchdown the last quarter which made us victorious. Both teams were about even. It was both a pleasing and exciting game. Andy made the touchdown which saved the day. Referee—Shields; Umpire—Bartholomew.

GRANITE CITY (There)—We, 15; They, 0.—Oct. 13, 1933

Another victory! We don't let a little thing like Friday, the thirteenth, stop us. The game was too one-sided to be interesting. Andy and Rogan both played good games. From the looks of things it is rather probable that we might win the S. C. C. Here's hoping. Referee—Deitcker; Umpire—Holson; Head Linesman—Larson.

GILLESPIE (There)—We, 9; They, 6.—Oct. 21, 1933

We won our first conference game! We should have made a bigger score than we did as Gillespie had practically no team at all. The boys just weren't going quite as good as usual. It was just one of those off days. Referee—Black; Head Linesman—Rhine.



Pulliam, Drobnack, Corso, Mehochko, Frkovich, Drum

Glosecki, Voyles, Paton, Rogan, Romani

FIRST TEAM

CARLYLE (Here)—We, 70; They, 0.—Oct. 27, 1933

The biggest score in our football history. There was no opposition whatsoever. We walked all over them. Andy showed his scoring power and his running ability. Camplin received a shoulder injury which will prevent his playing football the rest of the year. Better luck next year, Cecil. Referee—McAdams; Umpire—Macey; Head linesman—Peters.

NOKOMIS (Here)—We, 28; They, 6.—Nov. 3, 1933

What? We won another conference game? This is getting to be a habit. Let's hope it lasts. Andy did just about as he pleased with the ball for awhile but there was nothing unusual about that. There's that old saying, "You can't win every game", but I'm beginning to doubt it. Referee—Conrey; Umpire—McAdams; Head Linesman—Peters.

Fudoli, Barbetti, Drabant, Sturgeon, Ferrari, Beckemeyer, Karnes, Pence, Carriker, Eskra, Robbins.

SECOND TEAM

STAUNTON (Here)—We, 13; They, 0.—Nov. 11, 1933

The annual Armistice Day Game! It was our hardest game so far but we still have no conference defeats. "Ain't that somp'n?" It looks as if we can't be downed. This was the type of game that pleases the spectators. Referee—Conrey; Umpire—McAdams; Head Linesman—Peters.

PANA (Here)—We, 34; They, 0.—Nov. 18, 1933

The final game of the season and we won! What a team! No conference defeats for us this season. Is that a record! Andy's last game and he made three touchdowns. Corso and Frkovich each made a touchdown. The season ended with a clean record and we won the S. C. C.! Referee—Conrey; Umpire—McAdams; Head Linesman—Peters.

GREENVILLE AT HILLSBORO—December 8th.

First game of the season, but we lost. Team looked as if they needed more practice. Well, we hope for a victory over Staunton. 29-30. Ref. McAdams. Second team beat Greenville seconds, 39-10.

STAUNTON AT HILLSBORO—December 15th.

First conference victory for Hillsboro. The game was won in the last few minutes of play by scoring seven points. Ref. McAdams. 27-20. Our second team were the victors.

VANDALIA AT HILLSBORO—December 19th.

We did not have a chance with these boys. They played a good brand of basketball and they could not miss the basket. Ref. Karnes. 19-50. Vandalia's second team lost to ours, 23-16.

HILLSBORO AT NOKOMIS—December 22nd.

Our second conference victory this season. Team handled the ball a lot better. Made several free throws which helped us win. Ref. Cagle. 18-13. Hillsboro seconds beat Nokomis seconds. 16-14.

ALUMNI AT HILLSBORO—December 25th.

A post season game which turned in favor of the "Grads". Two college stars showed some good playing as did three others not in college. Ref. Micheletta. 19-35. Second team lost to their second team.

DECATUR AT HILLSBORO—December 28th.

We played better basketball than we have so far. We handled the ball like a good team and as as result we won the game. Ref. Rotz. 25-23. Second team beat Panama first team.

HILLSBORO AT CARLINVILLE—January 5th.

Hey, what's this; we won another game! The team is certainly coming out of its slump. They just played in spurts and got a nice lead in the last quarter. Ref. McAdams. 29-25.

HILLSBORO AT STAUNTON—January 9th.

Another conference victory but it was a close score. Team did not play a good game at all; it seemed to be their night off. Well, maybe we can get going a little later; at least we will hope for as much. Ref. Rawlings. 13-10. Staunton's seconds lost to our boys. 24-18.

HILLSBORO AT LITCHFIELD—January 12th.

Our first conference defeat which leaves Litchfield in the lead. The game was exciting in the last few minutes of play but we did not have quite enough points at the end of the game to win. Ref. MacDonald. 19-21. Hillsboro seconds defeated Litchfield seconds. 33-10.

HILLSBORO AT GILLESPIE—January 19th.

Another conference victory for us. We seem to be coming out of our slump and to begin to play basketball like we should. It looked as if we were done until we began to get some baskets in the fourth quarter. Ref. Firley. 25-21.

CARLINVILLE AT HILLSBORO—January 20th.

It looked like a hard game to begin with. They held us fairly even the first half, but we came through in the last half and got a long way ahead. Ref. Conrey. 28-15. Carlinville seconds lost to our boys. 37-19.

WITT AT HILLSBORO—January 23rd.

Even though this was not a conference victory we have one more game in the win column. The game was rather close in the last quarter and it looked for a while like anybody's ball game. Referee Perterman. 20-17. Hillsboro second team defeated Witt second team. 32-12.

TAYLORVILLE AT HILLSBORO—January 26th.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! "Doped" to lose, but did we? No! We just could not miss the basket and Taylorville could hardly hit the back board. The whole team was out to win and did. Taylorville looked plenty bad but of course we were plenty "hot" which helped. Ref. MacDonald and Gill. 28-14. Taylorville second team lost to ours. 19-6.

HILLSBORO AT VANDALIA—February 6th.

Well, the old 50-19 jinks did not work but we lost. The boys played a better game and so the score was not so one-sided. Hillsboro was a little behind at the half but made it up in the last half. Ref. McSwain. 24-28.

GILLESPIE AT HILLSBORO—February 9th.

We just could not get going enough to make a couple of baskets in order to win. Even though we were leading at one time we could not keep Gillespie from making their shots. It was a conference game and by losing it, it makes our chance for the conference championship weak. Ref. Steinhart. 22-26. Hillsboro seconds defeated Gillespie seconds. 34-10.

PANA AT HILLSBORO—February 13th.

Both teams played terrible basketball, but we won nevertheless. It was a conference victory and so we lost no ground. They played a fairly slow game the first half but it was a good football game in the second half. Ref. Duncan. Pana second team lost to our second team. 18-17.

LITCHFIELD AT HILLSBORO—February 16th.

The conference leaders looked plenty bad. The Hillsboro boys played them off their feet and a new trick play caught them asleep. Let's hope they win like this tomorrow night. Ref. McDonald. 29-18. Hillsboro seconds defeated Litchfield seconds. 22-20.

HILLSBORO AT WITT—February 17th.

What a defeat after a glorious victory. The team just could not click. Witt covered their trick play like a rug and they were completely lost. Ref. Henry. 10-22.

NOKOMIS AT HILLSBORO—February 20th.

The county champs proved their power by out-playing us very badly. They had possession of the ball most of the game. We began to hit our stride in the last five minutes of play and it looked for a while like a victory but the time was too short. Ref. McDonald. 22-24. Nokomis second team lost to Hillsboro seconds. 22-12.

HILLSBORO AT TAYLORVILLE—February 23rd.

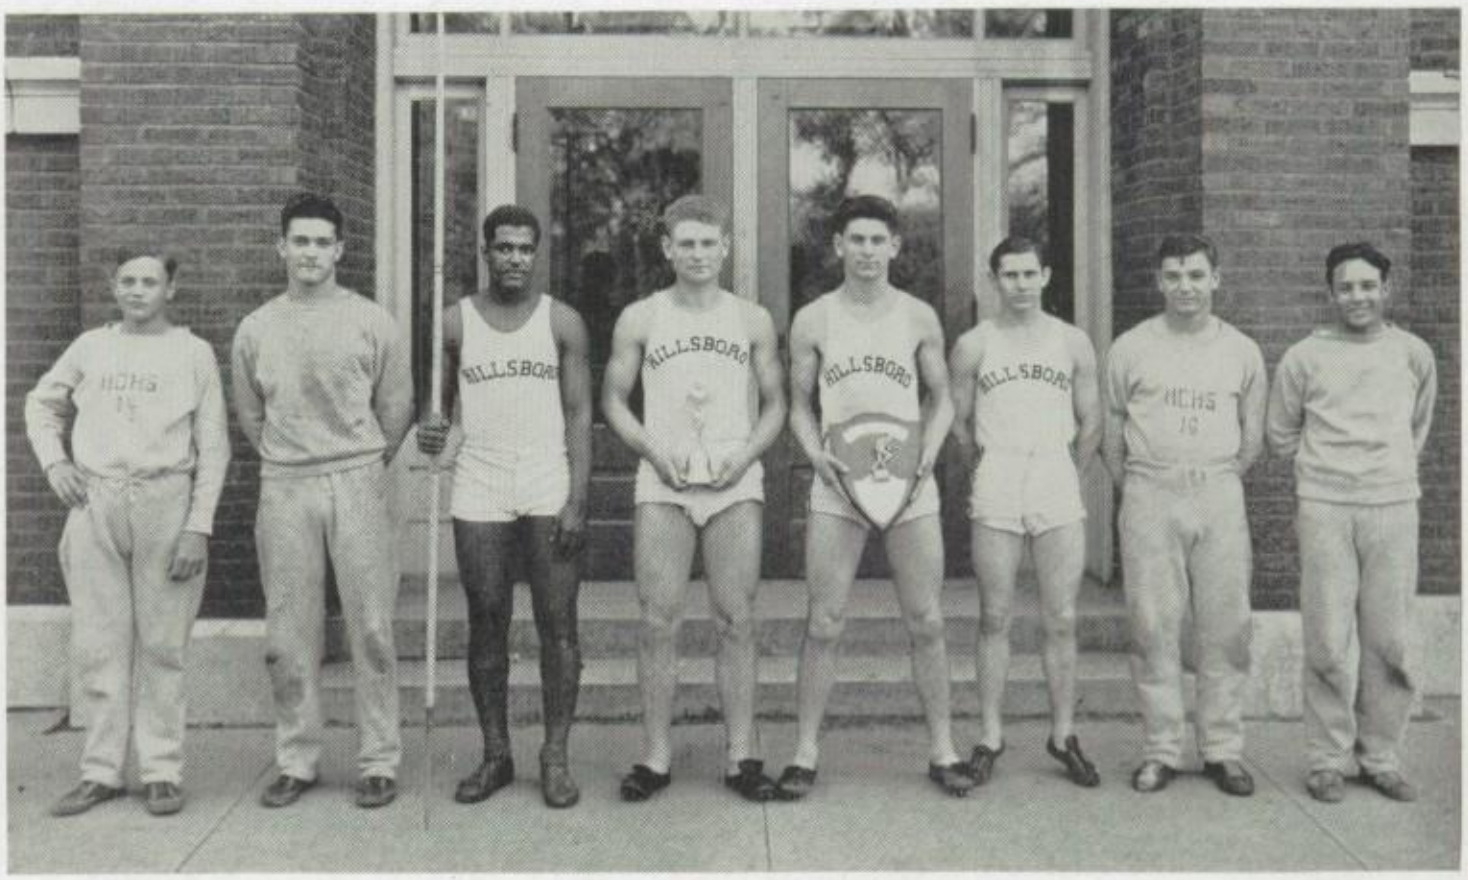
Well, we took them again and also on their own floor. Our defeating them gave Litchfield the title of the South Central Champs. The team played a very smooth game of basketball which counted for another victory. Refs. McDonald and Schultz. 22-18.

HILLSBORO AT GREENVILLE—February 27th.

This team gave us our first defeat but they did not do it the second time. The Orange and Black were a little too strong and made too many points for the opponents to overcome. We are ready for Pana, Friday, and another victory. Ref. Wood. 35-22. Hillsboro second team defeated Greenville seconds. 24-22.

HILLSBORO AT PANA—March 3rd.

Last game of this season which ended in a victory for the Hiltops. This made four victories in a row for us. Even though Andy was out we showed we could win without him, so it was lucky he did not play or Pana might have taken a worse beating. Ref. Tarro. 29-14.



Stephenson, La Russa, Rogan, Glosecki, Jurkanin, Fletcher, Corso, Fudoli.

Track 1933-34

The Hillsboro track team placed first in the South Central Conference; Litchfield took second place, and Taylorville, third.

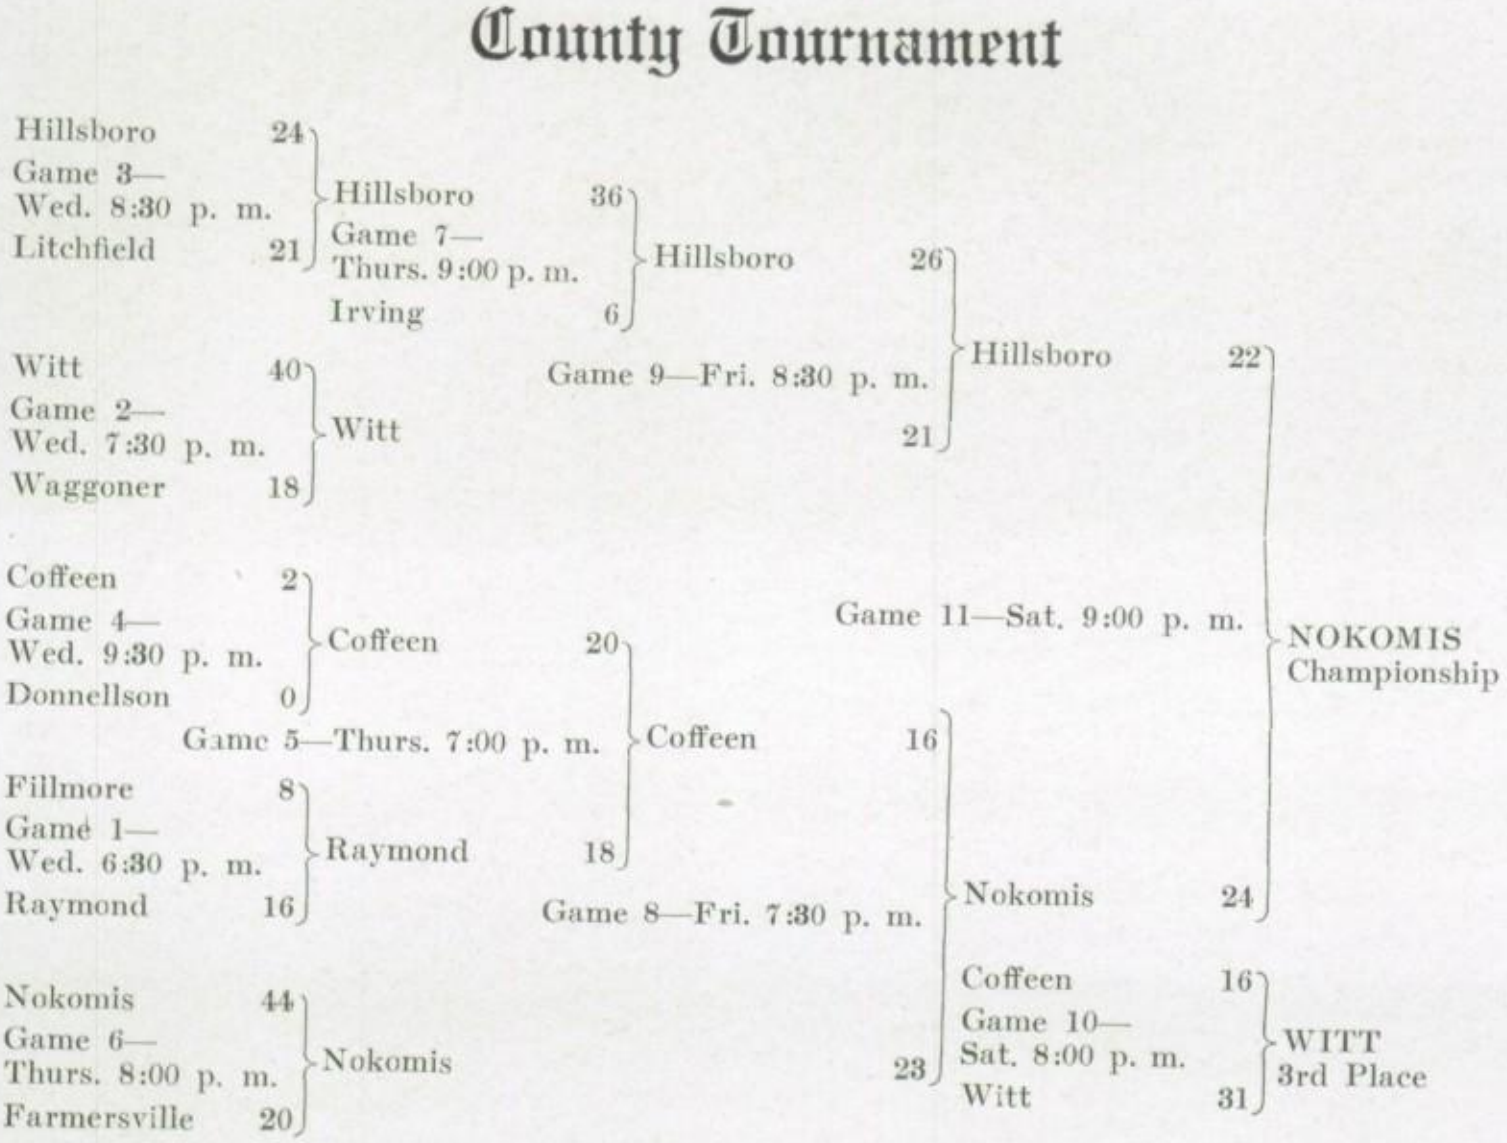
The conference meet was held at Taylorville, and Hillsboro took first place by making a total of 36 points.

In the major meet at Springfield, Jurkanin was the only one from Hillsboro to place. He made 2½ points. Hillsboro placed second in the novice meet; Peoria Central taking first, and Springfield, third.

CONFERENCE MEET AT TAYLORVILLE

Pole vault—Jurkanin, 1st.
Discus—Glosecki, 1st.
Shot Put—Glosecki, 2nd; Rogan, 5th.
Low Hurdles—Fletcher, 1st.
Javelin—Rogan, 1st.
Mile—Dohler, 4th.
High Hurdles—Glosecki, 3rd.
Relay—Hillsboro, 1st. Glosecki, Fletcher, Whitten, Jurkanin.

County Tournament



Everyone thought we could win the county but it just was not supposed to be that way. We beat the two best teams in the county and then lost it after all in a big upset.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association sponsored by Miss Helen Clark has had a very prosperous year. Under the leadership of Helen Tarran, president; Lois Hickman, vice-president, and Ada Hilt, secretary and treasurer, the members have enjoyed their work and know that something has been accomplished.

The prospective members about forty-five in number were initiated and became members after meeting the requirement of earning one hundred points.

During this year a variety of sports were offered in the gymnastic work; among these were soccer, baseball, volleyball, basketball and others.

Basketball is the main event of the year; class teams were chosen and intramural tournaments were played between these teams.

TOURNAMENT RESULTS

Seniors	.999
Juniors	.999
Sophomores	.333
Freshmen	.333

When these tournaments were finished, two all-star teams and their substitutes were chosen by our instructor, Miss Clark; the result of the game between these two teams was 23 to 18 in favor of the second all-star team.

A telegraphic basket shooting tournament was entered by thirty girls who have played basketball and we all hope their record is favorable. The basketball season was closed with a spread attended by all who had participated in this sport.

To defray expenses for girls to attend summer camp, entertainments were sponsored by our organization. A play called "Take My Advice" was presented by the Community Players. A tea was also sponsored at the beginning of school for all new girls who intended to become members. When Valentine's day arrived, another tea was sponsored; the gym was decorated with valentine symbols. Senior girls poured the tea and a program was also presented. Other teas were planned for as different holidays arrived.

One of the largest of our events is the May Fete at which the May Queen is crowned. Much time is spent to make this a success and we feel sure that it will be so this year.

We follow a point system whereby a girl may earn an award a year. The first two awards are designed and given by the local G. A. A. The two highest are state awards to be procured by the local association from the State League office.

A. Requirement for each award:

1. Scholarship.
2. Sportsmanship.
3. Posture.
4. Heart Examination.
5. Health Rules.
6. Participate in some team activity.

A certain number of points are required to earn each award.

600 points are required to earn the local award which is a small letter H.

1200 points are required to earn the second local award which is a large Chennile H.

1600 points are required to earn the state award which is the letter I.

2000 points are required to earn the state emblem which is the map of Illinois.

The girls who have received the state emblem this year are Ruby Chamberlin, Wilma Howard, Margaret Maloney, Kathryn Schraut, Blanche Sturgeon, Helen Tarran and Elba Zanni,

Every girl who has at any time of her life been a member of the G. A. A. has first taken this initiation pledge which she must obey to be able to become a successful G. A. A. girl. The Pledge is:

I promise to uphold the ideals of the Girls' Athletic Association;

By promoting athletics and the out-of-doors;

By living so that I may be healthy and strong;

By making good sportsmanship a constant factor in my conduct.

WHEN ORANGE AND BLACK FALLS IN LINE

When orange and black of Hillsboro falls in line,
We're going to win this game another time.
For the high school that we love so well
For our high school team we'll yell and yell and yell.

H. C. H. S. Alumni

Founded in 1925 at the suggestion of Miss Lelah Craig Brown, then a teacher in the Hillsboro Community High School, the Alumni Players have completed nine years of activity. Graduates and former students of Hillsboro Community High School compose the memberships, and each year members of the graduating class interested in dramatics are invited to become members of the organization.

Each year this organization presents three plays, and a portion of the receipts of each program is expended in buying equipment for the high school stage. During the holidays each year, members join in holding a dancing-party called the Gooseherders' Frolic.

Present officers of the players are:

President.....Miss Betty McLean
Vice-President.....Tom Bliss
Secretary.....Miss Sylvia Jones
Treasurer.....Carl Killpatrick
Business Manager.....Mrs. John L. Good
Production Committee: Miss McLean, Miss Jones, Miss Tarran, Miss Douglas, and Lewey Cole.

This year the Alumni have presented the following three-act plays:

This is a romantic comedy of three acts. The Princess Beatrice intends to marry off her daughter, Alexandra, to a member of another and more influential royal family. She is more than horrified to find that the romantic Alexandra has conceived an attachment for the young palace tutor, Dr. Agi. There is a tender and moving scene between the two young people, but Agi realizes his position and sadly leaves the palace forever. Alexandra agrees to marry the man of her mother's choice, and everything comes out to the satisfaction of Princess Beatrice.

AN APPRECIATION

The cloud of problems that obscures publication has cleared. In retrospect we are glad that we have completed our duty to our alma mater and to our school patrons. For those who have helped lighten the burden of this undertaking, we have a sincere feeling of gratitude. To our advertisers who have helped to make this "HILTOP" financially possible, we offer thanks.

The Assembly Programs

Who's afraid of the big, bad, wolf? Not Hillsboro High School—for Friday morning when the third and fourth year Latin class presented their drama, "Little Red Riding Hood," the student body actually cheered the monster. This nursery classic was given in pure Latin but due to the graphic actions of the characters the playlet was easy to understand.

The cast was as follows:

Red Riding Hood.....Anne White
Her Mother.....Ferol Krummel
Her Grandmother.....Charlotte Carter
Woodcutters: Edward Camealy
Hewitt Nance
James Shindler
Big Bad Wolf.....Peggy Fellis
Prologue, Explanatory Remarks, and Spring Dance.....Alvin Seltzer

George Oudyn furnished atmosphere for the most dramatic scenes with his excellent interpretations at the piano.

The play was written and directed by Miss Helen Clark, Latin instructor.

GEORGE WASHINGTON PROGRAM

On February 22, Miss Whitten gave a presentation in honor of George Washington's birthday. The setting of this play was a newspaper office. The editor and reporter took certain capsules which would take them back to George Washington's time. The reporter then interviewed Mr. and Mrs. Washington. It made quite an interesting picture.

The main characters were:

Editor.....Alvin Seltzer
Reporter.....Tommy McDade
George Washington
Harry John Beckemeyer
Mrs. Washington.....Beatrice Imhoff

Additional characters were Peggy Fellis, Ferol Krummel, Martha Louise Granier, Anne White, Catherine Conway, Jane White, Elizabeth Welge, and Ada Hilt.

LATIN PLAY

The Latin department presented selected scenes from the Roman epic, Virgil's Aeneid, on March 2. The scenes were translated by Alvin Seltzer and adapted for the modern stage by Ferol Krummel and Peggy Fellis.

Dramatis personae:

Prologue ..... Robert Bremer
Aeneas ..... Andrew McClean
Dido ..... Anne White
Anna ..... Ferol Krummel
Venus ..... Peggy Fellis
Achates ..... John Bullington

Additional characters were Ada Hilt, Myrl Boyd, Catherine Conway, Alvin Seltzer, Gordon Brown, Bill Barringer, Charlotte Carter, Jane White, Mary Jane Klar, Ross Boone, James Schindler, Marie Barbatti, Mary Pickerill, Florabell Schena, Hewitt Nance, and Edward Camealy.

THE FRESHMAN PROGRAM

The Freshman Program was given before assembly, March 16th. As usual, it was excellent. In spite of the "freshness" of the cast, they gave a well-rounded performance.

The program was as follows:

1. Little Women—Sketch written by Geraldine Strange and cast.

CAST

Meg ..... Alberta Evans
Jo ..... Cora Frkovich
Beth ..... Helen Wilson
Amy ..... Mary Pickerill
Mrs. March ..... Mildred Short

JUNIOR PROGRAM

The sixth hour Junior English class under the direction of Miss Edith Weller presented the "First Dress Suit", a clever little one-act play concerning the trials and tribulations connected with the first dress suit of a youth seventeen years young.

The cast was as follows:

Teddy ..... Lawrence Kralik
Betty ..... Ann Dammann
John ..... James Schindler
Mother ..... Florence Frarer

SENIOR PROGRAM

As their last appearance before the assembly, the dignified Seniors braved the struggle and presented a delightful and varied program. The numbers included were as follows:

Song ..... Lorene Davis
Reading ..... Margaret Ellington
Piano Solo ..... Katherine Schraut
Reading ..... Peggy Fellis
Song ..... Mary Jane Osborn
Reading ..... Jeannette Fesser

German Band—Harry John Beckemeyer, Alvin Seltzer, Harold Pence, Don Weller, George Oudyn, Walter Robertson, Leland Bondurant, Edward Camealy, Tommy McDade.

Dance ..... Wilma Howard, Harriet Venable, Anne White
Violin Solo ..... Edward Camealy
Reading ..... Dorothy Brown
Song ..... Mildred Pease
Song ..... Mary Nelda Karnes

LIBRARIANS

Incidents in Library

FIRST HOUR

"In springtime young men's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." This fact is most evident among the freshmen boys. The ones who read detective stories all winter now demand poetry. Among the most popular are Riley's "The Girl I Love", "An Old Sweetheart of Mine", and "When She Was About Sixteen"; maybe the English teacher had something to do with that. Who knows?

Even our Mozart, the ardent admirer of all librarians was effected. He moved from the top of the book case to the desk to continue his amorous (?) gazing. But he must have found that distance lends enchantment to the view for he is back on the book case. His glances are now directed to the library in general instead of toward the librarians only. And are we broken-hearted? Well, what do you think?—Louise Cress.

SECOND HOUR

The second-hour library seems to be one of narrow escapes. It always receives unexpected visits from principals, long lectures by salesmen, and angry speeches from teachers.

One dull, gray day when the librarian was decidedly out-of-sorts every encyclopedia was out of place. Angrily, I shoved them in place. Glancing upward, evidently for divine inspiration, I noticed the bronze bust of Mozart leaning affectionately toward me; indeed, not only leaning, but actually threatening to descend upon my noble brow. My last thought before death flashed upon my mind—Ah, well, I would be a martyr to the cause. Then dear old Mozart settled back and I thankfully walked away. What a narrow escape!

Peggy Fellis.

THIRD HOUR

During this period very few over-industrious pupils ever enter into the four walls of the library. In their place tall, fair-headed salesmen enter—or maybe they are short and dark. But, no matter how they look, all are seeking the one and only Mr. Girhard or the coach, Mr. Fearheiley. In all these cases I have to use my sense of direction plus the pointing of fingers and throwing of arms. In the end the salesman always gets his man through my greater 6th sense—that of direction.

Catherine Conway.

FOURTH HOUR

The peacefulness of the fourth hour library is shattered! Herb Rogan, hero of many a football and basketball game has entered the room. I am delighted for Herb is quite interesting and most informing. Tired of doing nothing, I prepare myself for a long talk. Sometimes when his romantic nature asserted itself, I learned of his past infatuations and present loves, for there was always more than one. Other times we discussed the possibilities of the team and teams of the future. On either subject he had an unlimited amount of information and I was always quite willing to listen.

Anne White.

Lyceums

If all our lyceums are as good as the first one, October 4, we will certainly be pleased. The Frazier and James Dance Group entertained us with dances from early Greek to modern German, including four selections from Chopin, Zulu, Mexican, and Broadway tap dancing.

Big fish! Little fish! Poor fish! We saw every kind, Tuesday, October 24, when Mr. Zimmerman explained the intricacies of deep sea diving and life on the bottom of the sea. Maybe it was a fishy tale, but it was both amusing and educational.

On Thursday, November 16, Umberto Sorrentino entertained us with his Venetian Strollers. The music wasn't so remarkable, but we received a good impression of "how to look daggers". Was he agitated!

Phillip Martindale of the Ranger Naturalist Service gave a very interesting discussion of the "Intimate Habits of Wild Animals and U. S. Rangers in Winter Service." There was nothing "bookish" about the Ranger's talk. Rather, it was the relation of experiences of a man who has lived his life out-of-doors, who knows his subject from having lived with it, and who knows how to tell about it in a human, interesting, and understandable way.

The Brown and Meneley Duo started the new year off with a bang on January 3. This versatile duo furnished such a variety of fine music, humorous character sketches and wholesome fun as to keep every listener in high spirits.

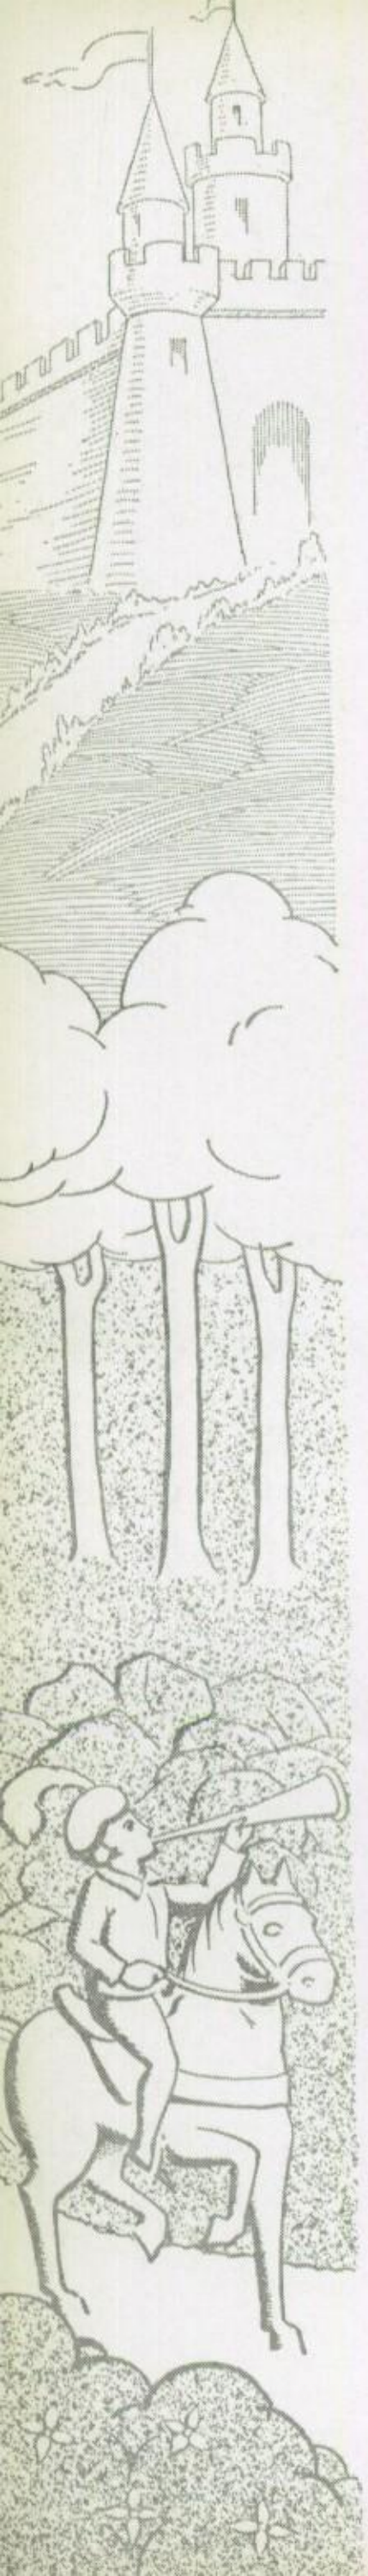
Mr. Joseph Elliott spoke this morning, Jan. 16, of his adventures on a research expedition in the wilds of Liberia. He illustrated his lecture with motion pictures. Much educational material was gained by his description of the customs, tribes, homes, and general standards of living of these natives of western Africa.

Evans Brown, an accomplished musician and a clever magician whose original endeavors in music and magic have gained considerable prominence for him in these two lines of artistic effort, gave us a delightful presentation this morning, Feb. 27. His program was of wide variety and proved to be tremendously popular.

Much to our dismay, the musical program scheduled for this morning, March 13, was substituted. Mr. Brown made a brave attempt to overcome our disappointment by giving us some unique character sketches as well as some instruction. It's too bad that we haven't some one to hold our hands while displaying our enthusiasm.

The lyceum given this morning, April 3rd, was a most versatile program by Jack Wood's Bell Ringing Trio. The program included old familiar songs, classical, and semi-classical melodies as well as popular tunes. With the bells their work was superb.

April 24, C. E. Jones presented "The Magic of Electricity". There have been only a few programs of such outstanding merit as this one. Mr. Jones knew his subject well and made the entertainment remarkable.



The Social Activities

THE SENIOR-JUNIOR PARTY

The Seniors were hosts and hostesses to the Faculty and Juniors in their traditional party on Wednesday. November 22, 1933. An informal dinner, prepared by the mothers, was served at 6:30 o'clock in the lower hall. After dinner the guests were entertained in the auditorium. The numbers given were as follows:

Piano solo.....George Oudyn
Cornet solo.....Alvin Seltzer
Trombone solo.....Harold Pence
Vocal solo.....Mary Jane Osborn
Reading .....Peggy Fellis
Baritone solo.....Harry John Beckemeyer
Vocal solo.....Lorene Davis
Violin solo.....Edward Camealy
Vocal solo.....Mildred Pease
Dance.....Wilma Howard, Anne White, Harriet Venable

During the program the "ambitious Senior lads" cleared the gymnasium. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing to music furnished by Mrs. Canan's orchestra.

TEA PARTY

The Girls' Athletic Association gave a tea dance early in the year for the reception of Freshmen girls. All the upperclassmen drew the name of a Freshman whom they were to "look after" during the evening. Mary Nelda Karnes played for the girls to dance and at five o'clock candy bars were served.

G. A. A. TEA

The girls of the G. A. A. sponsored a Valentine tea on February 13th. The "gym" was gaily decorated with red valentines. Each member of the organization acted as a special hostess to a new girl; therefore everyone had a splendid time. A program was given including a dance by Loretta Davis and a piano solo by Jane Evans. Music for dancing was furnished by Florence Frarer and Mary Nelda Karnes.

HILTOP PARTIES

Twice this year the Staff has discarded the weighty problems of assembling the year book and has tripped the light fantastic at the Country Club. Even the dignified Seniors lost their dignity and cavorted with the "Shadow".

"The more the merrier", therefore each member of the staff invited a guest. Music for the first party was furnished by the radio. Mr. Adams gave us a big surprise at the second party by having music furnished by an orchestra. We all were simply delighted and felt like overwhelming Mr. Adams with appreciation.

The staff feels that half the pleasure of completing our work is the fun we have at our parties.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

The fleet's in! The Juniors invited us, very formally, of course, to walk over their gang plank into their good ship, Junior-Senior. On open deck long tables were spread for a formal banquet. After dinner we went to the upper deck to be entertained by the crew. The program was as follows:

Accordian Solo	Johnnie Owens
Vocal Solo	Mary Bachochin
Piano Solo	Jane Evans
Dance	Loretta Davis
Piano Solo	Florence Frarer
Cornet Solo	Herman Perry
Waiter's Drill	Waiters

The waiters were dressed as sailors and the "grace" of the boys furnished much hilarity for the guests.

Again we went down to the main deck which had been cleared for dancing. At eleven o'clock the dancing stopped, for that is the time all good sailors and guests must go to their "bunks". Evidently sailing made some sea sick for they certainly had a sleepy look Friday morning.

SOPHOMORE CLASS PARTY

Ship ahoy! All on deck for the Sophomore huckus. Under the well supervised plans of our captain, Miss Weller, we had an evening of fun equal to that of a sailor when he reaches port. All barriers were dropped and even the pirates and sailors joined together to make the nautical evening a roaring success. After many lively games such as flying Dutchman and three deep, we all received doughnuts as sinkers; and with bottles of Coca cola we christened the good ship "Sophomore" because of the happy times we had had on board during our cruise of 1933-34. Much to everyone's regret, the cruise which we shall all hold as a pleasant memory, had come to an end. Everyone retired to his cabin happy but regretful.

FRESHMAN PARTY

Crash! Bang! Hiltop High rocked on its foundations, the flag-pole snapped off in the court house yard, and three extra squad cars were dispatched to what was thought to be a catastrophe. Wrong again—only the Frosh party, April 27. Some one-hundred undergrads, begarbed in overalls and ginghams, played games in the "gym". The festivities reached their height in a stunt program in which each section of the Freshman English department risked life, limb, and voice in some hazardous deed. In the way of a finale, the "Frosh" took part in a grand march to the cafeteria, where all partook of Nectar a la Olyroyd and the boon of all underclassman dreams—wieners and buns. Their class adviser, Miss Muriel Bennett, reported a good time was had by all.

The band contest was held last year at Collinsville. Our band obtained second place. This year it is to be held at Belleville, and the band is determined to do its best.

Last year Harold Pence, Harry John Beckemeyer, Herman Perry, and Marlyn Clotfelter entered as soloists. Beckemeyer won first place in this contest and went to the state contest. This year our soloists are going to enter again, and hope to keep up their good work.

The band now has emblems, and all members who have filled the requirements will get their emblems. These are well worth working for, and most of the band members have them.

Carnival

Be gone depression! The population of our city burst forth in riotous abandon to see the most unique carnival ever given on the hiltop.

Mr. Fearheiley had charge of the ticket selling at the door. In the lower hall three little maids checked hats, coats, and what not.

It was on the pike that the carnival spirit was most evident. Showers of confetti flew; barker's cries rang out above all other noises. All the sideshows gave the World's Fair keen competition. A great many people were enticed to enter the Hall of Science and the Streets of Paris. Miss Horner provided these clever attractions.

Barrels of candy were sold and Miss Bennett and her squad of girls held out 'til the last peanut was gone.

Mr. Adams and a crew of ambitious boys sold cards for Bingo at the price of "one dime", ten cents"!

A country store sent home numerous cans of beans to the purchasers. African dodgers provided thrills for many "would-be" baseball stars.

Mr. Ewald, not to be outdone, staged exciting wrestling matches at regular intervals in the boys' locker room. The gym boys participated in this and many old grievances were "punched" out.

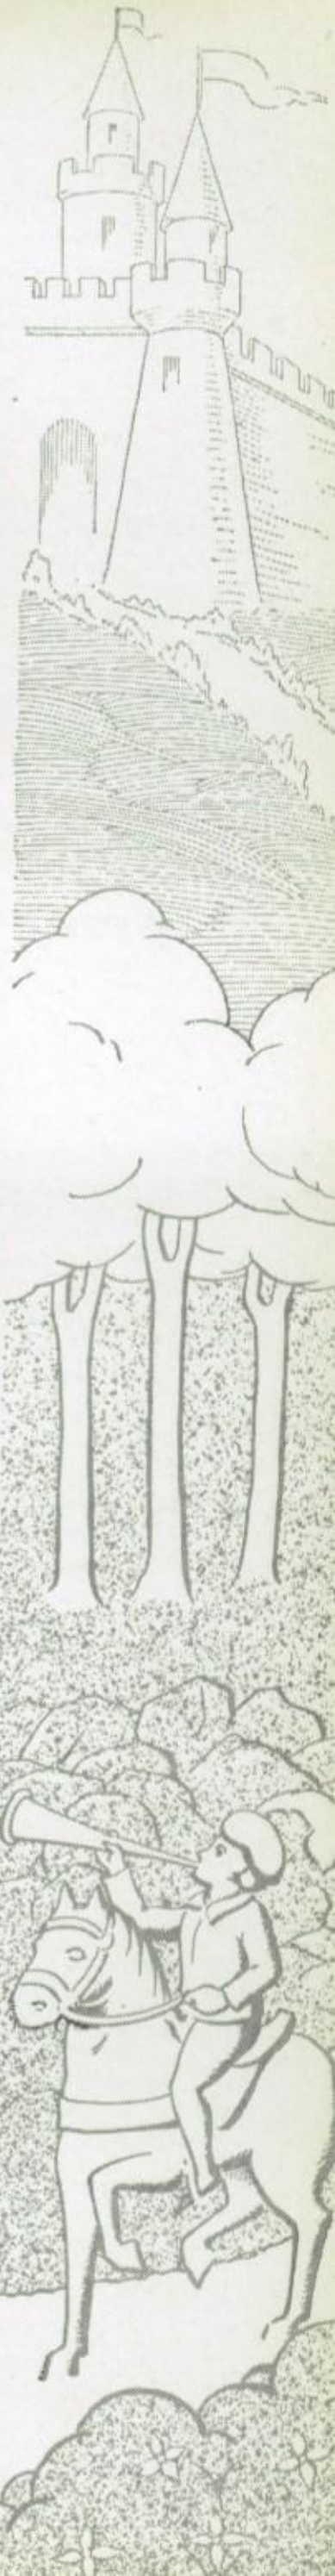
Miss Foster, Miss Reed and Miss Whitten held sway over the hot dog and soda stand in the lower hall.

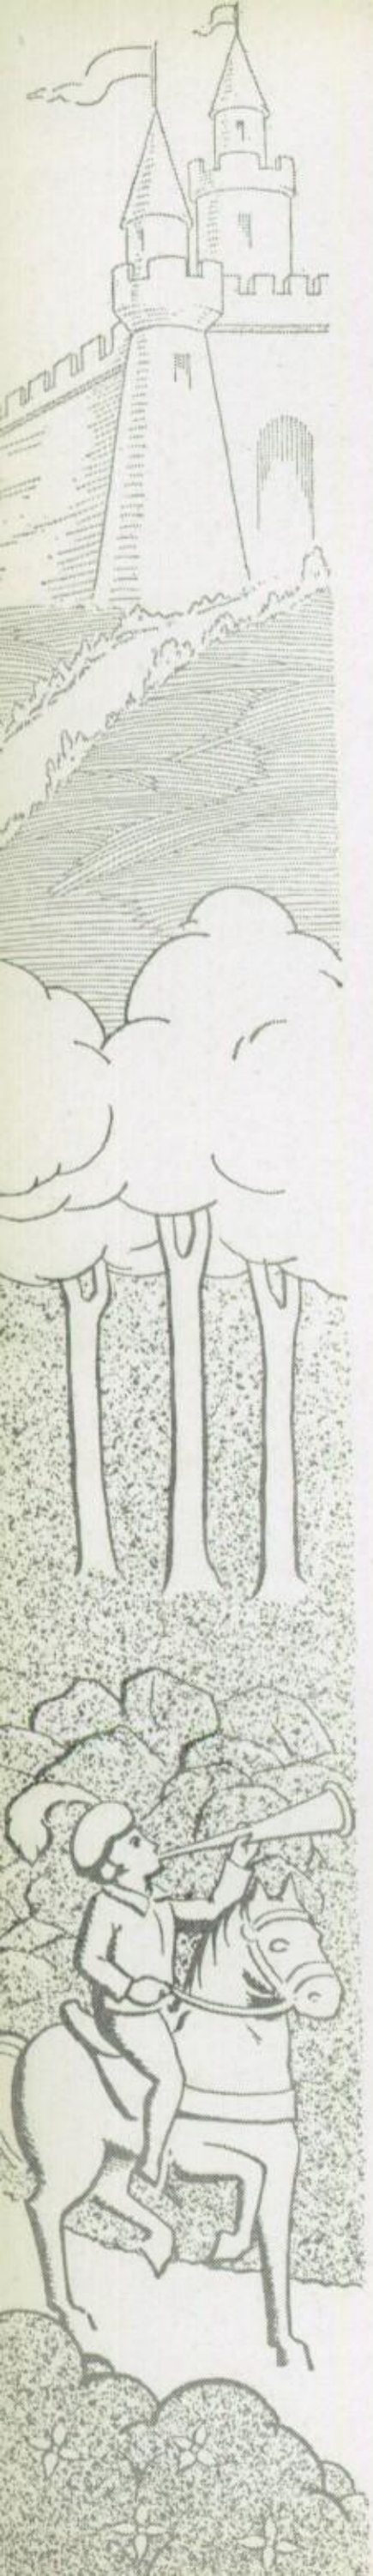
On the first floor the Harlem Hot-chas moaned imitations of Cab Calloway and Duke Ellington to the latest dance tunes. The Hot-chas had plenty of pep; the singing was good, the jokes were funny, and dances deserved, and got, plenty of applause. Miss Manning and Miss Hancock directed this show.

Across the hall the Alumni presented a skit, "Meet the Queen". In a truly rough-neck manner, a fan dancer was elevated to the role of queen of something or other, accompanied by Mahatma Gandhi and her sister fanners.

The largest show was held in the auditorium. Miss Clark, Miss Butz, and Miss Weller presented the "Hiltop Hay-loft". The stage setting was a night club, attractively set as a hayloft. An excellent floor show was presented which included blues songs, love songs, tap and adagio dancers, instrumental solos and a clever skit concerning a "very bad" man at the World's Fair. The audience enjoyed it immensely and roared their approval at the finale when four dainty (?) lads introduced as torch singers and dressed in night shirts, carrying flash-lights yodeled "Good night, Ladies".

All evening, spirited voting for Carnival Queen was taking place in a booth conducted by Jean McLean. At 10:30 the voting ended and the crowd hurried to the auditorium to see the coronation of the queen. A turkey, goose and chicken were raffled off to pass away time until the royal party made its appearance. George Oudyn at the piano played the march to which the ladies of the court slowly entered. They were met at the foot of the stage by their escorts and took their places on either side of the throne. Beatrice Imhoff, chosen Maid of Honor, entered alone, was met by her escort and took her place at the foot of the throne. Four buglers clarioned forth the message "Make way for the Queen". Peggy Fellis, Queen of Love and Beauty for the years 1933-34, entered. Bruce White, Senior class president, crowned the Queen and a short program was given. The coronation was especially lovely due to the new satin robe and jeweled crown, the lovely dresses of the court and the simplicity and goodwill that crowned the whole procedure. This climaxed a perfect evening and the footsore crowd struggled homeward, grateful for another pleasant evening.





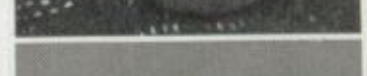
The Girls' Chorus

LORENE DAVIS

President

PEGGY FELLIS

Vice-President



FEROL KRUMMEL

Secretary and Treasurer

The membership of the Chorus was restricted this year to girls who really asked to be in the organization. About two hundred girls were present throughout the year. Lorene Davis was elected President; Peggy Fellis, Vice-President; Ferol Krummel, Secretary and Treasurer; and Florence Frarer, accompanist.

The Chorus meets on Mondays, once each week, the fifth period, and one-fourth credit is given for each year's work, provided the student does not have more than three unexcused absences.

Each girl paid a fee of twenty-five cents for the purchase of sheet music to be used by the Chorus, and at the end of the year each girl might choose two pieces to keep as her own. Some of the selections sung by the Chorus are "On the Road to Mandalay", "I Passed By Your Window", and "In the Garden of Tomorrow".

The executive committee planned a short program once a month. Any girl who had talent in any line was asked to perform. As a result, we had varied programs of songs, readings whistling solos, and dances.

As the operetta date drew near, several groups of girls were "tried out" each Monday. By the experiment several excellent voices were "unearthed". All boys interested in operetta were also tried out. Seniors were, as customary, chosen for the leading parts. "Ask the Professor" was the operetta given this year. It was a delightful and humorous presentation which turned out to be quite successful. About one hundred and fifty students took part in it.

The purpose of Chorus is not only to instruct in singing but also to help students develop self-confidence. This was the motive for having programs each month.

PAT BLISS

DOROTHY FELKEL
Secretary and Treasurer

Headed by Helen Tarran as president, Pat Bliss as Vice-President, and Dorothy Felkel as Secretary and Treasurer, the Home Economics Club has had a very interesting time this year. By giving several programs the club has learned many helpful things and combined business with pleasure.

The first program was a musical program with dance numbers furnished by members of the club. The second program was an educational talk given by Mrs. A. M. Howell on "The Costumes and Foods of China". It was a very interesting talk and both classes enjoyed learning about the foods and clothes of China.

In February the clothing class put their children's clothes on display for the P. T. A. The foods class made and sold popcorn balls and hot dogs and earned some money for the club that way. The clothing classes also redecorated the annex and has made it very attractive. It was repapered and painted and the class made curtains, rugs, and drapes to go with it.

In all the club has sponsored several interesting projects and most of the members have enjoyed and profited by it very much.

ELBA ZANNI
Vice-President

The Commercial Club, composed of about two hundred members is the largest, and one of the most active organizations in our school. On the third Wednesday of each month an interesting program is presented, never failing to stimulate interest among the would-be stenographers.

A group of our club members presented a play, "Diogenes Looks for a Secretary", at the October meeting. Parts were taken by Ethel Yates, Viola Lipe, Otto Funk, Johnnie Owens, Alma Reynolds, Russell Holcomb, Imogene Ragel, and Nelda Brooks.

We were greatly honored in November to have with us again a former Hillsboro Commercial teacher, Miss Imogene Murphy, who made a very interesting talk. She told us of the necessity of accuracy, punctuality, and common sense in our work. We are sure that the advice which Miss Murphy gave to us will prove very beneficial, for her authority is experience, the best of teachers.

In December the Commercial Club sponsored a motion picture, "The Cradle Song", and as a result added to our treasury $41. The purpose of this undertaking was to obtain money to buy some modern office equipment for the commercial department. A financial committee composed of Pauline Bandor, Louise Cress, and Luella Toberman was appointed by the president.

Mr. H. J. Beckemeyer, Superintendent of Schools, addressed the club in January on the subject, "The Difference Between Success and Failure". Mingling bits of humor with serious matters, Mr. Beckemeyer very interestingly gave us some practical information.

In February, Miss Ottie Gannon, Circuit Court Reporter, told us of the qualities lawyers seek in their secretaries.

The Commercial Club has not only aided us in securing beneficial advice from those who have learned from experience, but it has also furnished for us hours of entertainment which would not otherwise have been possible.

Calendar 1933-1934

Tuesday, Sept. 5—First day—but we only went half day. All those who wish to die report on football field today.

Wednesday, Sept. 6—Miss Horner likes dogs. Especially those that are thirsty. The heat is simply te-rrific.

Thursday, Sept. 7—Librarians were asked for—Hiltop feuds made up (?) My, my, so much in one day is so unusual.

Friday, Sept. 8—One week gone and some upper classmen have yet to learn that the look of innocence upon the face of a "Freshie" was once upon theirs.

Monday, Sept. 11—The library is open for reference (?) work. Just my luck. Miss Weller picks out the toughest girls in school for librarians.

Tuesday, Sept. 12—What's funny in 8th hour English class? Miss Manning—What did you say? (about quack doctors in England) tch, tch.

Wednesday, Sept. 13—In all the years Mr. Girhard has been principal no one has yet thought up an excuse better than the one a "Freshie" gave—"I fell down a well."

Thursday, Sept. 14—Andy was elected football captain. Three cheers for him. First Chem. Lab. Oh! Oh!

Friday, Sept. 15—"Be careful and don't break any more test tubes", is Mr. Cox's unheeded wail; and the tinkle of breaking glass continues.

Monday, Sept. 18—An assembly the very first thing. Cafeteria starts today.

Tuesday, Sept. 19—Mr. Ewald, what's this? Who told you that you were "the sweetest man she had ever met?"

Wednesday, Sept. 20—Elizabeth Welge was spanked in the hall. 'Lis'beth, did yo all have ah birthday today? (That is a southern brogue. Imitation of some girls on the Staff).

Thursday, Sept. 21—Mr. Cox calls for band practice. "No, teacher, I didn't get my lesson on account of band practice 5th period."

Friday, Sept. 22—"Do you have room for me in your car." The reason for this inquiry is that we play our first football game with Nokomis, at Nokomis. And we won 19-0.

Monday, Sept. 25—Blue Monday. Blue Calendar editor. Nobody felt clever today so nothing happened.

Tuesday, Sept. 26—Register for Chorus. Commercial Club meets. Election of officers.

Wednesday, Sept. 27—Band marches on football field. Edward Camealy is drum major.

Thursday, Sept. 28—All those interested in cheer leading met today in Room six. Senior pictures taken.

Friday, Sept. 29—More Senior pictures taken. Junior, Soph and Freshmen pictures also taken. Even football team had their pictures taken.

Monday, Oct. 2—Saturday's game with Peoria Manual ended in a tie, 6-6. First meeting of chorus. Election of Officers.

Tuesday, Oct. 3—Mr. Cox organizes the orchestra. First the band and then the orchestra—what's next?

Tuesday, Oct. 3—Miss Horner asks for petitions for Senior class officers. This was heard in the hall—"Would you sign this petition?" "No—of course not—I'm up for the same office."

Wednesday, Oct. 4—Lyceum today. It was interpretative dancing. One boy told me that the best number was the Zulu dance.

Thursday, Oct. 5—Miss Horner gave the first hour history class a lecture in swearing—didn't she Martin?

Friday, Oct. 6—Football game at Carlinville. School out at 1:40. Wotta game—we finally won, 7-6.

Monday, Oct. 9—The new officers in chorus entertained. The president sang but the only thing that kept the other two from singing was their voice.

Tuesday, Oct. 10—Class elections. Much politics. Miss Horner says it's the closest election in years.

Wednesday, Oct. 11—Today all the boys from "Springs" dressed up and wore neckties. They looked so nice. But the Hillsboro boys got smart and wore overalls. They looked terrible.

Thursday, Oct. 12—These boys that shoot paper wads better watch out! Mr. Girhard is on the war path!

Doctor—"You may have whatever you like to eat today."

Harry J. Beckemeyer—"I will have roast chicken."

Doctor—"Would you like it stuffed with anything in particular?"

Harry J. Beckmeyer—"Yes, with another chicken."

Mr. Fearheiley—"What is a geyser?"

Tom Carter—"A waterfall going up."

Howard Miller stopped at the garage and asked a mechanic how to tell how much horsepower a car had and the mechanic replied, "Lift up the hood and count the plugs."

Bob Bremer—"I've had this car for years and never had a wreck."

Bea Imhoff—"You mean you had that wreck for years and never had a car."

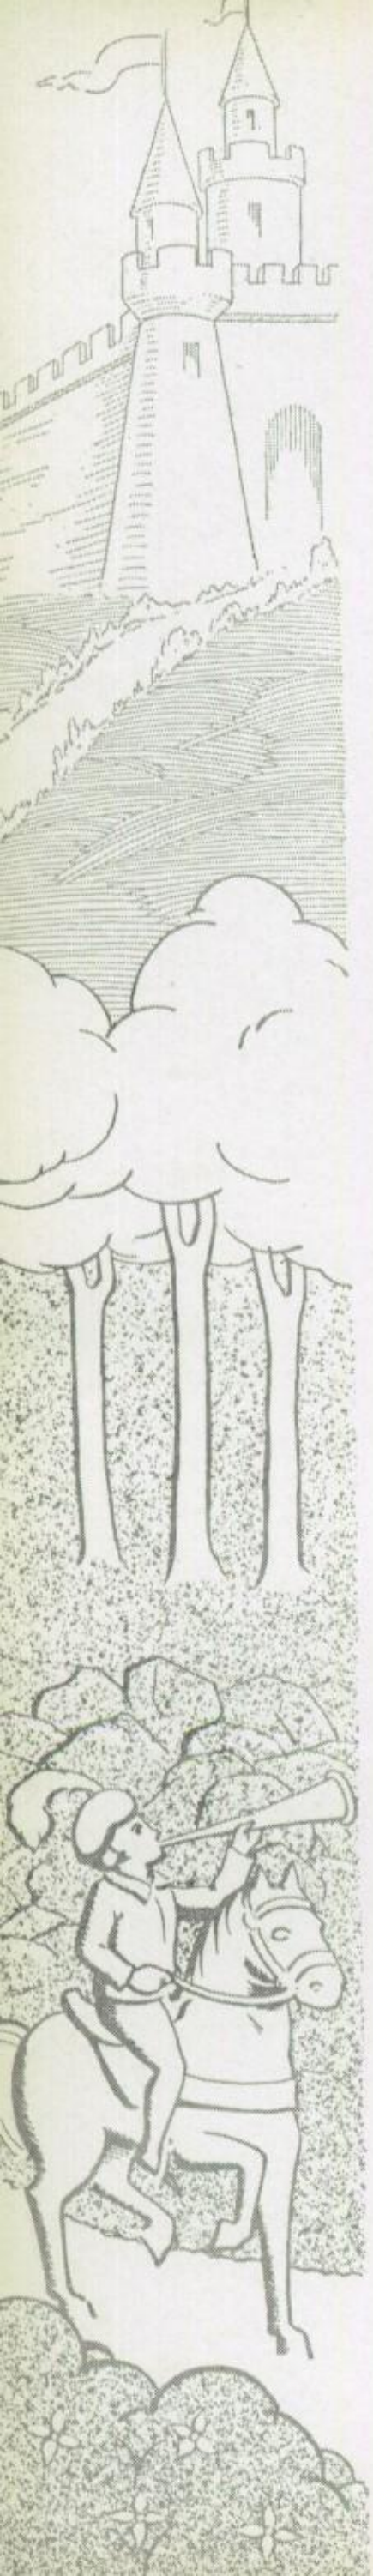
Policeman—"You've been speeding!"

Gordon Brown—"The brakes won't work so I wanted to get home before I had an accident."

Mr. Fearheiley—"Have I ever told the class this one before?"

Class—"Yes."

Mr. Fearheiley—"Good, you will probably understand it this time."



Friday, Oct. 13—We beat Granite City, 15-0. Did we pull a fast one—they thought they could beat us!

Monday, Oct. 16—Believe it or not—
Roy Romani is bashful!
Joe Gnavi blushes!
Martin Frkovich is off women.

Tuesday, Oct. 17—If there isn't more noise in the Auditorium 5th period there should be. Three of the noisiest girls are there—aren't they Mr. Adams?

Wednesday, Oct. 18—Well the third time's the charm—maybe. Three times the band has elected officers! Will they never decide?

Thursday, Oct. 19—The Commercial Club entertained today in the auditorium. They gave a play on the virtue of constant studying—very appropriate for high school students—don't you think?

Friday, Oct. 20—The well known drama—"Little Red Riding Hood" was presented in Latin. The song "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf?" was sung but we changed it to "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Report Cards?"

THE ALPHA and OMEGA

SUCCESS must start somewhere. That is common sense—the most uncommon thing in this world. If every one used just ordinary common sense everyone would be rich and successful.

NO one jumps into success at once. It starts with a bank account here and ends in everything that makes life worth living. The Alpha of Savings will if maintained inevitably be followed by the Omega of Success.

Congratulations to the Class of 1933-34

Monday, Oct. 23—"Snort" lost his football suit after the game Saturday, in which we beat Gillespie, 6-9, and did he feel rascally!

Tuesday, Oct. 24—Heard in English class—a girl was giving a report on "State Fair"—"Mr. Peters had taken his hog, Blue Boy, to the fair. Finally the day came when Mr. Hog was to display his Rogers!

Wednesday, Oct. 25—"The old gray mare, she ain't what she used to be—." "Tommy McDade is going to give a report on Paul Revere's horse, in history .

Thursday, Oct. 26—Peggy is a hero. She put out Harry John's hair after she had set it on fire. It's a good thing the wood didn't start burning.

Friday, Oct. 27—Ho—hum. We played Carlyle and won 70-0. Yes, I guess all the second team boys got to play, so they could win their letters.

Monday, Oct. 30—Somebody took all the bolts (but one) off one wheel of Gordon Brown's Ford. So Gordon, innocent of this plot, raced to school in second but not until he started to park did the wheel come off.

Tuesday, Oct. 31—Vote for candidate for Carnival queen. The list wasn't posted until noon and no girl could study that morning.

Wednesday, November 1—In football practice today, "Fat" Karnes fell on John Frkovich's sore foot and did he have to leave the field—I should say so!

Thursday, November 2—Ann Dammann went wild and proved that the weaker is often stronger. I believe Hewitt Nance left school sick, as a result.

Friday, November 3—The team ended Nokomis' hopes for a S. C. C. championship with a 28-6 defeat.

Monday, November 6—Miss Horner announced the Senior-Junior party for November 22. She ended her talk with—"Better get your girls while the getting's good, boys."

Tuesday, November 7—Is Peggy's face red! Ask her about writing on an order blank which had carbon paper under it.

Wednesday, November 8—"Tall, Dark, and Handsome," sings Lillian Henry in the carnival. And replies Herbert Rogan, "That must mean me. I'll be seeing you later, boys."

Thursday, November 9—The faculty received invitations to the Senior-Junior and were asked to bring their families. Mr. Fearheiley blushed; Mr. Adams refused to state his thoughts; Miss Weller said she would come and bring all 3 husbands; and the rest kept a discreet silence.

Friday, November 10—The first snow. All you people better get out your long, red, wooly underwear.

Monday, November 13—All preparations for the carnival are under way. The result will be a bigger and better carnival. Be sure to vote for the queen.

Tuesday, November 14—Yes, Tommy, we all understand your feelings. Nobody likes to remember their family tree. Especially if there's a persimmon on it.

Wednesday, November 15—Your mistake, Miss Manning. All the rumbling you thought was Margaret Maloney was just the coal they were putting in.

Thursday, November 16—Mary Jane Klar (looking at a Geometic theorem). "Mr. Adams, that proof is all wrong. I can't see how anybody could get that for a proof."
Mr. Adams (meekly): "Well, I'm sorry but I did that."

Friday, November 17—Carnival night! More fun! More people killed! Peggy is our queen! It was the end of a perfect day. In the afternoon we showed Pana just how football is played.

Monday, November 20—At Parent-Teachers they voted to buy a "hot water bottle" for the teachers What we want to know is who got cold feet?

Tuesday, November 21—Several people have suddenly gone "puny". Some examples of their "wit" the new "butcher" and "banana" songs—"Butcher arms around me—" and "Bananni doesn't live here any more."

Wednesday, November 22—Absolutely no Senior or Junior was able to study today. Why? Tonight is the Senior-Junior! And there's no school Thursday or Friday because of Teachers' Institute.

Monday, November 27—Back to school again. We all had a grand time at the party—except Mr Ewald, who couldn't eat his peas because he had no knife.

Tuesday, November 28—Ah—we have a horse woman in our midst. Catherine Conway got on a horse after school and it almost ran away with her. Catherine yelled "whoa" and pulled on the reins but it didn't seem to understand so she kept yelling until it finally stopped.

Wednesday, November 29—Mr. Cox celebrates the beginning of our Thanksgiving vacation by giving a six-weeks' chemistry test. Somebody's always taking the joy out of life.

Monday, December 4—Senior Day! All seniors wore their worst but none equaled the girl who was sent home to put on something "decent".

Tuesday, December 5—Report cards given out. The honor list increased this time. However, we can't all be on that list.

Wednesday, December 6—The N. R. A. has at last affected us in the price of a lyceum. Only a nickle. I knew it! The fuse blew out and we didn't get to see it. But he came back in the afternoon.

Mr. Ewald—"Take the whole bottle! Try it on your head."

Bob Appleton—"Say, what's the idea of wearing my raincoat?"
Bruce White—"You wouldn't want your new suit to get wet would you?"

A coach is a fellow who is always willing to lay down your life for his school.

Tom Melton—"I'm rather good at imitations. I imitate almost any bird you can name."
Isabella Welsh—"How about a homing-pigeon?"

Martha L. Granier—"All my life I have been saving my kisses for a man like you."
Bill Barringer—"Prepare to lose the savings of a lifetime."

Thursday, December 7—Just another lecture in Hiltop for noise. Really, I should think Mr. Adams would get so used to it that he wouldn't blush to the roots of his hair.

Friday, December 8—The girls when playing basketball really fight. The casualties are numerous. The boys fought in a different way. We lost our first game to Greenville.

Monday, December 11—In English, a boy was asked to use the word "wet" in a sentence. His sentence was: "The boy fell in the lake and was drowned."

Tuesday, December 12—Harold Pence has learned his lesson. From now on he will watch sodium reactions through plate glass because once you are hit in the eye with it that's plenty!

Wednesday, December 13—The first ice appeared this morning and more than one slipped and fell.

Thursday, December 14—Pep Club meeting. Everybody yelled. In fact so loudly that they themselves were surprised.

Friday, December 15—A lecture in forestry was our pleasure in the morning while at night we watched our team beat Staunton, 27-20.

Monday, December 18—A Christmas play presented by the English Department. The most important event, however, was the absence of a member from Hiltop Staff.

Tuesday, December 19—Have you heard—Robert Pickerill play the "juice harp" in the band?

Wednesday, December 20—All that noise you hear in Hiltop is because several people have different ideas about the colors our annual should be.

Thursday, December 21—This may be the shortest day in the year but that doesn't mean we get out any earlier.

Friday, December 22—The last day of school we have this year. Am I glad! Oh, I wish I could go away to school and come back and lord it over the kids in a mere high school!

Wednesday, January 3—The faculty must have thought we needed some pep after our holidays, so we had a very peppy lyceum which kept us laughing all the time.

Thursday, January 4—Those people in study hall 2 who made the mistake of talking were requested by Mr. Girhard to remain after school for 45 minutes.

Friday, January 5—Imagine anybody falling over anything so big as a radiator. But Lester Brown did.

Monday, January 8—Mr. Fearheiley (trying to lead up to the answer of a question): "Well now look—What would you do if you had a nickname you didn't like?"
Thomas Melton—"Reduce."

Tuesday, January 9—Take Mr. Ewald's advice that he dished out to "Kate" Benson: "One man is good enough for any man."

Wednesday, January 10—Monkota Karnes gets the hic-ups in chemistry. Too many chemicals.

Thursday, January 11—Some people just can't behave in assembly.

Friday, January 12—Our first game with Litchfield which we lost. But wait till the next time. We'll take them.

Monday, January 15—Jean, our beloved secretary, is sick—poor Jean.

Tuesday, January 16—An African explorer entertained with illustrations. Howard Hiller, his assistant, would put one in upside down.

Wednesday, January 17—Oh My! Exams.

Thursday, January 18—Oh My! More Exams.

Bob Appleton: "Thank goodness that's over with!"

John Bullington: "Hey, Joe, that ladder is upside down."

Joe Ash: "I know it. I put it that way so I'd be near the bottom if it falls."

Bruce White: "What would you do if the teacher didn't like the way you do experiments, and bawled you out?"

Peggy Fellis: "I'd hand him a hot retort."

Byrl Boyd: "It took eight sittings."

John Evans: "What? Been having your portrait painted?"

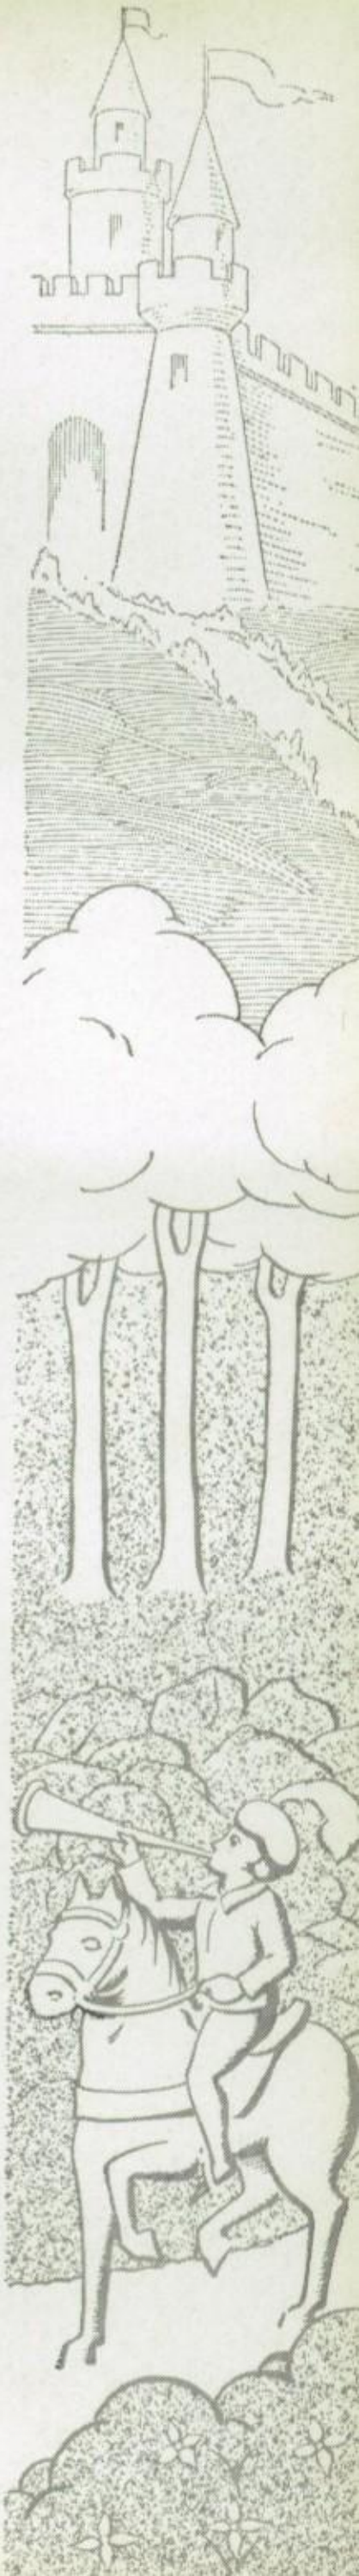
Byrl Boyd: "No, learning to skate."

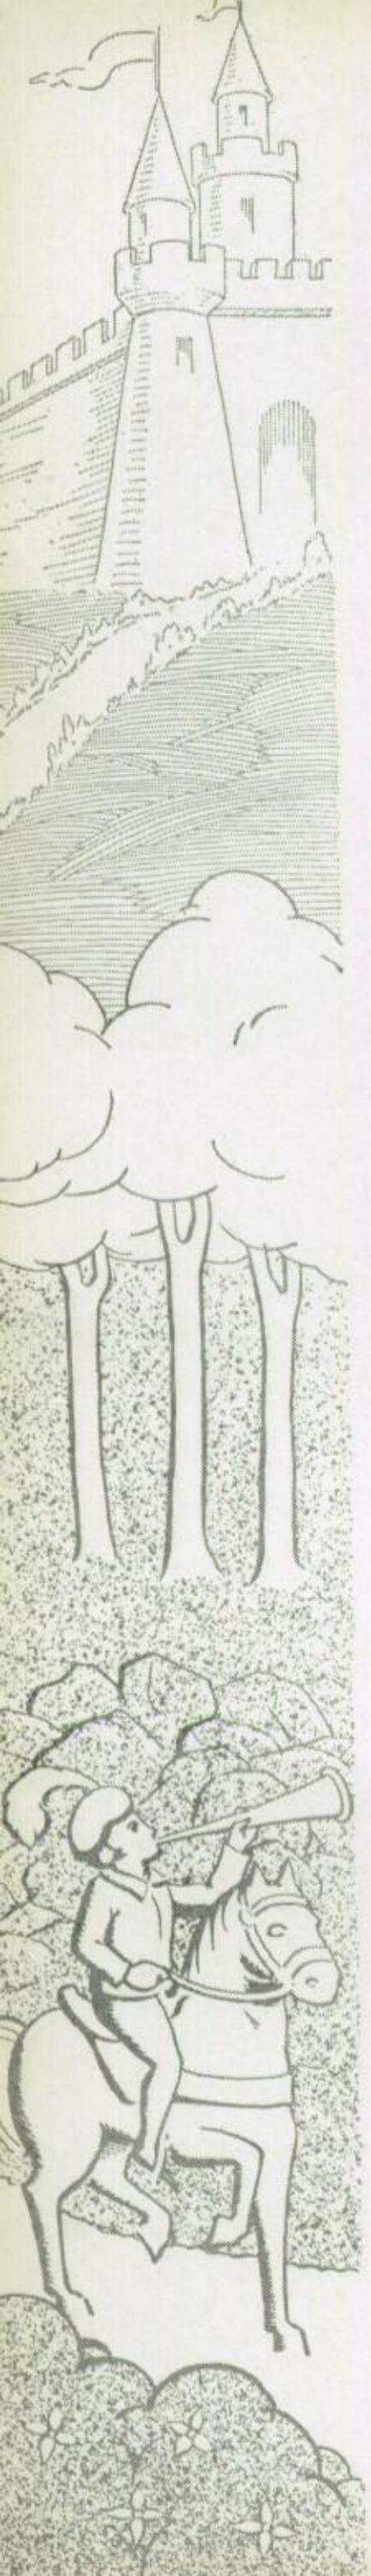
Don Weller: "Oh, I know a few things!"

Tom Melton: "Well you haven't anything on me. I guess I know as few things as anybody."

Mary Ann Bernardini: "The directions say to rub the surface down with steel wool. What on earth is steel wool?"

Cookie Mc.: "I'm not sure but I think it's made from fleece of hydraulic rams."





Calendar

Friday, January 19—Oh My! And More Exams.

Monday, January 22—Did you know that Mr. Adams can wiggle his ears—both at once and then one at a time! !

Tuesday, January 23—Girls' Basketball spread. The girls' first all-star team was defeated by the second team.

Wednesday, January 24—In Economics, while looking up the homes of ancient people, Pat Bliss said Prentiss Kenney's ancestors lived in caves. Prentiss' reply was: "At least they didn't live in trees like yours."

Thursday, January 25—The people who ruined pictures had their pictures taken again. Here's hoping those faces don't ruin those pictures.

Friday, January 26—We played Taylorville "the undefeated team" and won by an almost double score. Are we good!

Monday, January 29—Fearheiley gives his second lesson in wrestling. Who is the unlucky pupil?

Tuesday, January 30—And who were those three little boys that got sent out of chem. lab?

Wednesday, January 31—We played Litchfield in our first game of the tournament and won 24-21. What a triumph!

Thursday, February 1—"Do you believe in the power of numbers?" Just think what wonders you could do if you were a No. 9.

Monday, February 5—"What's all the noise in Biology?" "Oh, nothing—Mr. Ewald's chair just slipped out from under him and the floor rose to meet him."

Tuesday, February 6—Vote for class rings. I have my own opinion of people who voted for a ring they hadn't even seen.

Wednesday, February 7—So, that's where our money goes. Mr. Adams spends it for a pair of gold handled sissors!

Thursday, February 8—Annie Bonati was speechless when Harry John happened to douse her with a bottle of water.

Friday, February 9—Pat, you "know" so much you're just an old "nobody".

Monday, February 12—"You may go to the office." This was heard one morning when, for the first time in 10 years, a teacher sent a pupil to the office.

Tuesday, February 13—Jo Allen, don't you know by now that when a certain member of the Faculty says "no" he means "no".

Wednesday, February 14—"St. Valentine's Day". Our little Secretary has one she'll give "Sug" if he'll only come for it.

Thursday, February 15—Vacation again. The pupils get out so the teachers can learn some more to teach them. That's justice.

Friday, February 16—Ha! Ha! Did we take Litchfield, the team that was going to walk all over us. According to them the "Hillsboro Jinx" is back (we hope) to stay.

Monday, February 19—Operetta is started. No cast as yet, but there are certainly quite a few good singers this year.

Tuesday, February 20—8th hour Chemistry had to stay in. All because Bea attacked Claude, and Andy put snow down Peggy's back.

Wednesday, February 21—Miss Horner surprised U. S. History class with a test. I don't believe she was surprised because as usual we didn't know a thing.

Thursday, February 22—A George Washington Program. Some very graceful girls dance the Virginia Reel. One was so graceful she almost fell down.

Friday, February 23—
Miss Horner: "Ferol, what is 'No Man's Land'?"
Ferol (caught talking): "I don't know."
Miss Horner: "Well, naturally you wouldn't know anything about 'No Man's Land'."

Monday, February 26—Did you know Patty Bliss had an acquaintance with a wrestler? Ask her if she's going to wrestle much in the future.

Tuesday, February 27—The only thing wrong with some of the magic tricks in Lyceum was that we had learned all about them from the Camel ads.

Wednesday, February 28—
According to Bea—
a fireplace
a pipe
a boy and a girl equal something very cozy.

Thursday, March 1—Andy has blossomed out with a wrist watch. By the way, did you know that Margaret Perry is sick.

Friday, March 2—A Latin play—"Scenes from Virgil"—wherein a Venus reveals herself! And didn't "Bus" look darling in that short tunic?

Monday, March 5—The library is getting a new coat of paint. So that study hall will be quiet for awhile—at least.

Tuesday, March 6—Report Cards—with all these surprise tests and exams I won't get such wonderful grades.

Wednesday, March 7—Too bad, Mr. Adams! In spite of all the help from the staff Mr. Adams couldn't quite sneeze today.

Thursday, March 8—What member of the faculty has a mania for making people cry?

Friday, March 9—Where did all the "Fishers" and "Hermans" come from? Just middle names to be put on diplomas.

Monday, March 12—Harry John says Listerine isn't any stronger than water. We wonder—Has he tried and failed?

Tuesday, March 13—
"Ann Dammann, did you know there was a poem written to you?"
"No, what?"
The poem, "To an Insect."

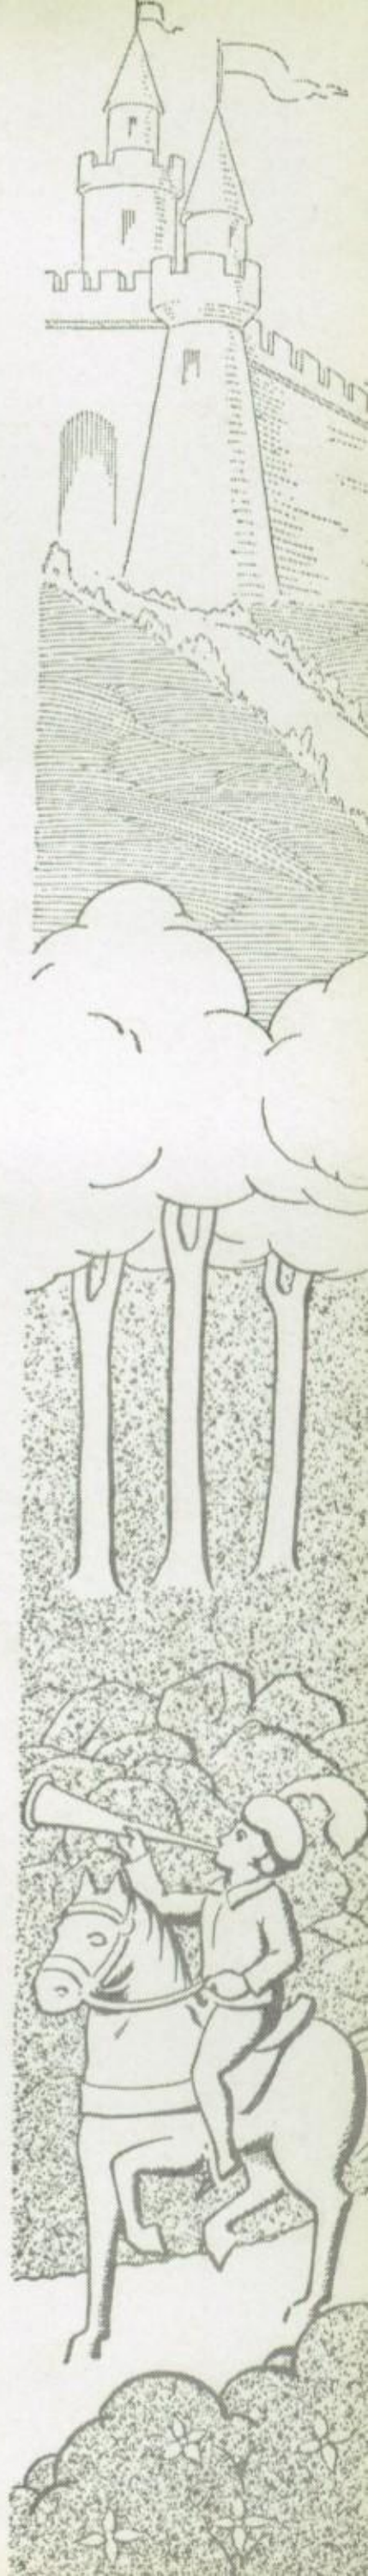
Wednesday, March 14—Miss Manning is looking for some budding senior actors. I'm afraid that they have all been killed by the early frost.

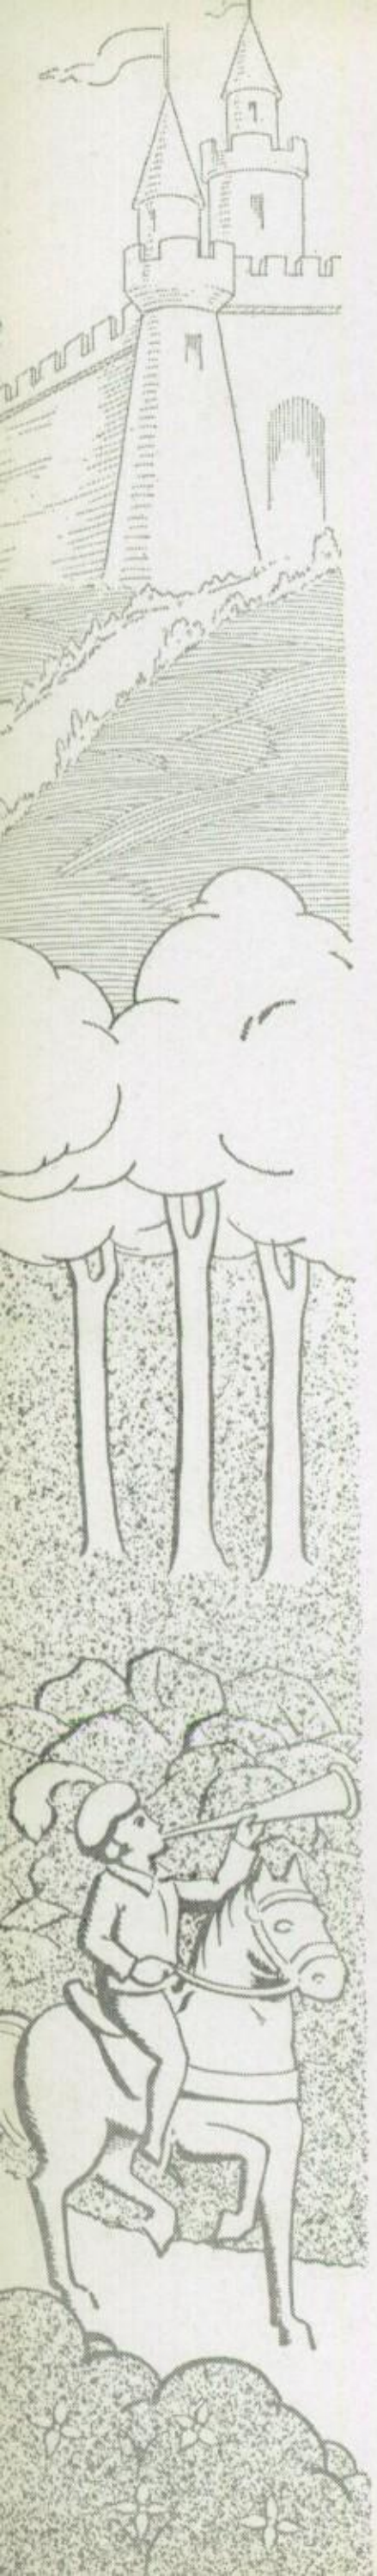
Thursday, March 15—Mr. Ewald and August La Russa clash again. Same result—August does extra duty in the library.

Friday, March 16—Freshman program—The best thing in it was Edward Cress' characterization of the sissy.

Monday, March 19—What's this I hear about two boys in chemistry that shot a stream of water out the window, which the wind blew back into Mr. Girhard's room?

Tuesday, March 20—Mystery—
Who put snow down Annadel's back?
Who's Jean's boy friend from Butler?





Miss Horner: "In which of these battles was Alexander the Great killed?"
Otto Funk: "I think it was his last."

Mr. Cox: "Who can define indigestion?"

Jean Weingand: "It is the failure to adjust a square meal to a round stomach."

Harold Pence: "Give me a derby."

Clerk: "What size?"

H. Pence: "I don't care."

Clerk: "What color?"

H. Pence: "I don't care?"

Clerk: "Well why?"

Harold Pence: "Oh it's for my trombone."

Miss Weller: "Give me a sentence with the word avaunt in it."

Bob Pickerill: "Avaunt what avaunt when avaunt it."

Wednesday, March 21—Our secret ambitions have been revealed! Miss Manning read the themes we wrote when in eighth grade, on what we wanted to be in future life.

Thursday, March 22—Who were the five brilliant seniors who decided to play school in Miss Horner's room?

Friday, March 23—No school today. We get out on account of the paint.

Monday, March 26—Ditto from Friday.

Tuesday, March 27—Back again! Everything looks so clean and bright. In fact, everything is clean and bright except the students.

Wednesday, March 28—For some reason L. R. A. doesn't like Harry John's chuckle.

Thursday, March 29—What! No Adam's Apple? If you don't get this, the Rooster will.

Friday, March 30—Johnnie Hume made a beautiful 3-point landing after a speedy descent of the hill. Don't be foolish! Of course Priscilla picked him up.

Monday, April 2—George Musgrove—Are you the boy who tried to get in a class without an admit? Was he nabbed at the door or was he nabbed at the door!

Tuesday, April 3—Lyceum—Jack Woods' Trio—Not bad—a little cool, but not bad.

Wednesday, April 4—When Tommy goes to college he's going to take hog-calling. That's so he can answer the call to dinner.

Thursday, April 5—Operetta Nite—Ask Peggy if she will give lessons in love. Oh Professor!

Friday, April 6—Sophomore Program and a reading that is true. For Jane Evans does have "China blue" eyes.

Monday, April 9—I've heard quite a lot about what happened at the Band Contest. But I'd still like to know what happened to Bob Bremer at Edwardsville.

Tuesday, April 10—Evidently Pansy (or her mother) talked "Skipper" out of her week's vacation.

Wednesday, April 11—If all reports are true, "Eddie" Cress left the Hiltop dance with his glasses on. The Staff would like to know how long they stayed on.

Saturday, April 14—Our first track meet. At Taylorville. Here's to our luck. Orchestra to contest at Normal.

Tuesday, April 17—According to Mr. Cox, black is just the opposite of white.—Just fancy.

Thursday, April 19—Jr.-Sr. Banquet. Formal again this year. Thanks to the Jr.'s—so they say.

Friday, April 20—Hiltop is more fun and more wisecracks are passed—when Mr. Adams is in a good mood.

Monday, April 23—When Pat came back from Champaign all she could say was, "'Taint a fit night out for man nor beast!"

Tuesday, April 24—C. E. Jones—gave a lecture on electricity. Isn't it surprising what can be done with electricity.

Wednesday, April 25—Don't you just "love" people who laugh at their own jokes?

Monday, April 30—A certain Junior girl on the staff wears the cutest pink and blue pajamas so imagine her dismay when asked if she wore green. Ahem.

Tuesday, May 1—May Fete. Done in Royal style. All the Roman Gods and Goddesses return to create Pandora.

Wednesday, May 2—Celebrate! For once a motion of Peggy's was seconded by Mr. Adams. That was—"Shut up".

Thursday, May 3—Tommy says an advantage of an oil burner on a ship is that during a storm you could "pour" oil on the troubled waters.

Saturday, May 5—Track—Conference meet at Taylorville.

Tuesday, May 8—Ferol's mad and I'm glad and I know what'll please her. A bottle of ink to make her stink and an editor to kiss her.

Wednesday, May 10—Aren't you glad it's spring? Catherine is. You know, don't you, that she likes to draw—especially Nature.

Thursday, May 17—Senior class play. A brilliant play. It couldn't help but be brilliant with the cast it has.

Saturday, May 19—The crowning event of all track meets. The state meet held at Illinois U.

Monday, May 21—August La Russa has the right to feel sick. After cutting Gene Del Canton's Biology in two, he found that it was his own book.

Wednesday, May 23—Believe it or not. Bob doesn't want a carbon copy of Bruce's term theme. For once he doesn't—really.

Friday, May 25—Who locked Margaret Perry in lecture room? Oh, Andy! What a golden opportunity lost.

Saturday, May 26—The last track meet this year. We contest the strength of Bloomington's team.

Sunday, May 27—Baccalaureate Services.

Wednesday, May 30—Great secret revealed—The "Dirt Disher" answers to the name of "Peggy".

Education + Saving = Success

- This bank believes in education. It believes particularly in the efficiency of the faculty and curriculum of the Hillsboro Community High School.
- But education by itself is powerless to do the big things of life. It takes CAPITAL to put EDUCATION into EFFECT.
- Every day at Hillsboro Community High School you are becoming better fortified to make a success of your life. But let us suggest that you give equal attention to the importance of SAVING money. Every penny saved TODAY will mean added POWER for you tomorrow.
- This bank invites your patronage and will help you save.
